

MIGHTY CAPITAL

Mighty Capital

Mighty Capital is the go-to venture capital firm for product-first early-growth companies. In 5 years, we have achieved 3 IPOs, 3 Exits and 3 Funds. Founders and other VC firms invite us to invest because we help our portfolio companies sell faster, hire top talent, and initiate M&A discussions, by giving them exclusive access to over 300,000 product managers including Chief Product Officers through a platform called Products That Count. Learn how we've helped directly from our CEOs of Amplitude (NASDAQ: AMPL), Bit Discovery (acq by Tenable) or GameOn. We've been featured in TechCrunch and produced a founder-first podcast.

www.mighty.capital

The logo for Mighty Capital features the word "MIGHTY" in white, bold, uppercase letters inside a red rectangular box. To the right of this box, the word "CAPITAL" is written in red, bold, uppercase letters. A thin red horizontal line extends from the right side of the red box across the page.

MIGHTY CAPITAL

SC Moatti

SC Moatti is the Founding Managing Partner of Mighty Capital ®; the Founding CEO of Products That Count, the most influential product acceleration platform; and a lecturer at Stanford and Columbia Universities. Prior, SC built products at Facebook and Nokia that billions of people use. Andrew Chen, General Partner at Andreessen Horowitz, called SC “a genius at making products people love.” SC serves on the boards of public and private companies, earned a master’s in electrical engineering and a Stanford MBA, and is a Kauffman Fellow.

www.mighty.capital