

You're Invited to a Special Livestream Webinar on Climate Tech and Renewable Energy!

Wednesday, June 28, 2023 | 11:00 a.m. PDT

Hi Friends,

I hope your week is starting off great!

Climate is a threat to the planet, and an area of great opportunity for entrepreneurs and investors to be part of the solution. Last year saw over $70 billion in venture capital invested in Climate Tech ventures, and renewable energy funding tripled over the previous year. There are huge opportunities for founders and investors in this sector, as climate resilience becomes a growing imperative worldwide.

Join me and a panel of experts as we discuss this and much more. Please take a look at the lineup of awesome speakers below and confirm your attendance by clicking on the RSVP button.

Registration is required and space is limited.

RSVP

Hope to see you there!
